Parkview will provide information about opportunities by: providing parents with a list of volunteer opportunities for the 2015-2016 school year; offering pre-school professional development session for parents on how to enhance parental involvement strategies; offering literacy and math nights for parents on how to incorporate developmentally appropriate learning activities in the home environment; and meeting with freshmen parents during "Transition Camp" to orient parents to high school procedures and related activities.

Contact Parkview's Main Office at 501-447-2300 for more information or visit the school's website.

A school-parent compact will be provided that outlines the responsibilities of all stakeholders involved in the academic achievement of the students.

Contact Ms. Vanessa Pace Hampton 501-447-2400 for more information.

The Parkview staff will assist parents with their child's career assessment to help student achieve the state's high academic standards. College and career information workshops will be provided during parent night(s) hosted by school counselors. Students and their parents are also encouraged to attend "College Night" to meet with college representatives. Incoming freshmen and their parents will meet with the school counselors individually to review school standards and expectations.

Contact Ms. Monica Watson, Head Counselor at 501-447-2304 for more information.

Parkview will provide opportunities for parents to be involved in the development, implementation and evaluation of school-wide school improvement plan by: supporting the PTSA organization in its mission and goals with membership drives and active participation; placing a PTSA representative on the school's leadership committee; surveying former students about the Parkview experience and using the data to make decisions about school improvement; and by coordinating and integrating parental involvement strategies with research-based strategies.

Contact Dr. Dexter Booth, Principal, at 501-447-2300 for more information.

Parkview will provide the following resources to parent: access to the Parkview Parent Center to check out materials, use of the computer for research, or visiting educational websites; a suggestion sheet for parent input about the school; information packets that include a copy of the Parental Involvement plan, a list of activities for the school year, and systems of communication for school staff; books, magazines, and other literature for parents to borrow.

Contact Vanessa Pace Hampton, Parkview Parent Facilitator, at 501-447-2400 for more information.

Parkview will engage parents in the evaluation of the parent involvement efforts at the school through a comprehensive needs assessment that will be completed by teachers, parents, and school staff. The evaluation will determine the effectiveness of the school's parental involvement plan and make changes if warranted. It will determine: (1) the growth in the number of parents participating in workshops and meetings; (2) specific needs of parents; (3) effectiveness of specific strategies; and (4) engagement of parents in activities to support student academic growth.

Contact Vanessa Pace Hampton, Parkview Parent Facilitator, at 501-447-2400 for more information.

Parkview will use the parent interest surveys to improve the school's parent involvement efforts by: asking parents to fill out the parent interest survey at the beginning of the school year for input about activities that would be beneficial in efforts to support their students academically; using the results of the survey to plan parental involvement activities for the school year; evaluating all activities at the end of school year; and hosting parenting seminars that will inform parents about ways to be involved in student course selection, career planning, and preparation for postsecondary opportunities.

Contact Vanessa Pace Hampton, Parkview Parent Facilitator, at 501-447-2400 for more information.

Parkview's Annual Title I meeting is planned for November 2016. Dr. Dexter Booth 447-2302

National Network of Partnership Schools

Terry Elementary School is a member of Johns Hopkins University National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS). The NNPS School, Family and Community Partnership family model is designed to enhance parent participation and involvement in the school and community. The family model is researched based and references engagement, activities, and resources for the six types of involvement: Parenting, Communicating, Volunteering, Student Learning, Decision-Making and Collaborating with the Community. To support the six types of involvement, Terry participates on the LRSD NNPS West School Cluster Team. Contact Person: Sharon Johnson (501)447-2843
